++ Valid for broadcast between 1800 and 0600

Headline:
Turning increasingly warm through this period.

This Evening and Tonight:
A fine and dry night, largely clear but perhaps some patchy low cloud in coastal areas of Lincolnshire at first, clearing away later in the night. Becoming slightly cloudier in the east around dawn. A mild night. Minimum temperature 13 deg C (55 deg F).

Thursday:
Mostly cloudy to start on Thursday before the cloud breaks to give some warm, strong sunshine by afternoon. Mainly sunny end to the day. Mostly light winds. Cooler near coasts. Maximum temperature 22 deg C (72 deg F).

Outlook for Friday to Sunday:
Remaining fine and dry with light winds and long spells of strong sunshine. Early mist possible each morning. Feeling increasingly warm, or even hot by Sunday. Cooler near coasts.
